Field Programs in SFU Faculty of Education’s Graduate Studies department collaborates with school districts and partner organizations to design innovative, theme-based Graduate Diploma in Advanced Studies in Education (GDE) programs. GDEs are in-service, cohort-based programs that engage educators in focused, sustained, and reflective inquiry into their classroom practice. GDE programs consist of 30 credits of coursework over two years and are offered at off-campus sites.

Applications are invited for Sessional Instructors for the following Special Topics course in current GDE programs for Summer 2019 (August):
