The Field Programs area of the Faculty of Education works with partner organizations to design innovative in-service programs, which engage educators in focused, sustained reflective inquiry into classroom practice. Its Graduate Diploma programs (GDE), incorporating this philosophy and consisting of at least 30 credits of coursework over two years in a specific theme, are designed in collaboration with local school districts and are offered at off-campus sites on a cohort basis.

Applications are invited for Sessional Instructor(s) for the following Special Topics course(s) in current Graduate Diploma program(s) for Spring 2018 (January 1 - April 29, 2018):
