The Field Programs area of the Faculty of Education works collaboratively with school districts to design Graduate Diploma in Advanced Professional Studies in Education programs (GDEs), which engage educators in focused, sustained reflective inquiry into classroom practice. GDEs consist of at least 30 credits of coursework over two years in a specific theme and are offered at off-campus sites (usually within a school district) on a cohort basis.

GDE Mentors are required to make a two-year commitment to a GDE program and their involvement will take various forms, including attendance at after school classes during the school year, possible attendance during a five-day summer institute in August, and maintaining contact with the teacher-learners to whom they are assigned throughout each term. In addition, to ensure program continuity and consistency, Mentors are expected to participate in regular meetings throughout the program, participate in a Mentor Professional Learning event and an annual Mentor Conference.

Applications are invited for Mentors(s) for the following GDE program(s) for two years beginning in January 2020 and ending in December 2021.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>GDE Program</th>
<th>Cohort District(s)</th>
<th>Cohort Location (School District)</th>
<th>Course Dates &amp; Times*</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Inclusive Education                               | Maple Ridge        | Maple Ridge                       | Tuesday evenings 4:30-8:30 pm
|                                                  |                    |                                   | Summer: 5 days, August 24-28
|                                                  |                    |                                   | 9:00 am – 3:00 pm          |
| Curriculum Design and Learning for Diverse Classrooms | Delta               | Delta                             | Wednesday evenings 4:30-8:30 pm
|                                                  |                    |                                   | Summer: 5 days, August 17-21
|                                                  |                    |                                   | 9:00 am – 3:00 pm          |
| Place and Nature-based Experiential Learning     | Vancouver          | Vancouver                         | Wednesday evenings 4:30-8:30 pm
|                                                  |                    |                                   | Summer: 5 days, August 17-21
|                                                  |                    |                                   | 9:00 am – 3:00 pm          |

* Mentors are required to attend an average of 5 classes per term (or 10 half-classes); specific times/dates will be arranged with the Faculty Associate responsible for each program and may vary from term to term.

Criteria for Mentor Selection:
Applicants should be:
- Knowledgeable as an educator, with breadth in the subject area of the program;
- Experienced in working with adult learners;
- Self-directed learners with an orientation toward teacher inquiry;
- Able to build positive relationships with individuals and work effectively in a team environment;
- Able to support teacher professional development as a long-term learning process;
- Reliable, flexible, and comfortable in a dynamic, ever-changing work environment;
- Able to commit to a two-year involvement, available for evening/summer classes as required; attendance at planning meetings, Mentor Professional Learning Event (Fall or Spring - evening), an annual Mentor Conference (all day Saturday in February; exact date TBD), and regular contact with the teacher-learners in their Mentor group;
- Currently employed in a BC school district or possess current knowledge of BC schools (K-12).
Mentor Responsibilities:
Mentors generally work with a group of 6-8 teacher-learners in a cohort and responsibilities include:

* Supporting ongoing learning and reflective self-assessment;
* Reviewing and responding to individual learning portfolios and field study documents;
* Responding to e-mails and suggesting resources to assist teachers with their field study work;
* Leading learning-focused discussions for planning, problem-solving and reflecting purposes;
* Providing a response to presentations of field studies and portfolios;
* Assisting teacher-learners to create realistic learning and fieldwork plans, develop and complete projects, and demonstrate and reflect on what they learn from these activities;
* Fostering critical examination of beliefs and assumptions that influence teachers’ educational decisions;
* Encouraging teacher collaboration and supportive educational communities;
* Participating in planning and debriefing sessions with other Mentors and the Faculty Associate;
* Participating in a Mentor Professional Learning Event (Spring or Fall) and annual Mentor conference (usually in February).

The frequency, nature and length of each Mentor’s contribution will vary from term to term depending on the needs of the students and the nature of each individual program. Involvement takes place both during and outside class time.

Compensation:
Typically, Mentors are compensated for approximately 20 hours of in-class work per term as well as an equivalent number of additional hours of work outside class hours. Compensation is paid at the end of each term via the university’s payroll system. During the first term, involvement may be limited to attendance at two classes and compensation is adjusted accordingly.

Application Process:
Please submit a completed Mentor application form, a letter of application indicating interest and qualifications, current curriculum vitae, and two letters of reference to:

Dr. Paula Rosehart, GDE Coordinator, c/o g_romeo@sfu.ca

[ Reference Letters: See “Reference Letter Guidelines” which outlines requirements and can be sent to referees.]

Closing Date:  Applications will be received until: Monday, January 20, 2020.

Please contact Celeste Hambleton at fp_manager@sfu.ca if you have any questions about this job posting. Thank you for your interest in our programs. Please note that only those selected will be contacted.

In accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, this advertisement is directed to people who are eligible for employment in Canada at the time of application. Simon Fraser University is committed to the principle of equity in employment and offers equal employment opportunities to qualified applicants. Information collected on application documents is obtained under the authority of the University Act (R.S.B., c.468.s.27(4)(a), applicable federal and provincial employment regulations and requirements and the University policy, Collection of Personal Information, (I.10.5). The information collected is directly related to and needed by the University to process applications for teaching positions and for offers of employment to qualified applicants. The information will be used by the Chair of the Department, or designate, to conclude appointments. If you have any questions about the collection and use of information provided by you, please contact the Director of Field Programs, Faculty of Education.
If you have questions about Freedom of Information, please contact the Information and Privacy Officer, at 778.782.5465.