Alaska Highway Consortium on Teacher Education (AHCOTE) Program

Delivered under the direction of Simon Fraser University, the Alaska Highway Consortium on Teacher Education (AHCOTE) program has been operating at Northern Lights College for over twenty-five years.

The AHCOTE program invites applications from experienced teachers interested in an appointment as a Coordinator or Faculty Associate for the next student cohort, beginning September 2016.

• The Coordinator will hold a half-time (0.5) appointment throughout the duration of the program, from September 2016 until December 2017, with a two-week orientation period in August 2016. The Coordinator plays an advisory role for the Faculty Associate, providing support and consultation on a variety of program matters, including student performance. In consultation with the Faculty Associate, the Coordinator is also responsible for arranging student practicum placements within the school districts and for liaison that will enhance the students’ exposure to professional expertise within the school districts. Coordinators visit area schools regularly, developing supportive relationships with teachers and School Associates.

Please note that the Coordinator and Faculty Associate may also apply for part-time Sessional Instructor positions from September 2016 to December 2016 (Semester 1) and from May 2017 to June 2017 (Semester 3) of the program. For more information on sessional opportunities, please see the posting issued by SFU’s Faculty of Education, Undergraduate Studies.

Candidates should note that the selection process for all AHCOTE positions is highly competitive. The Faculty of Education welcomes applicants from a variety of backgrounds that reflect the diversity of Canadian society. Selection of candidates is based on the following criteria:

• demonstrated ability to work as a member of a team
• willingness to examine and refine one’s practice
• curriculum and instructional needs of the program
• normally five years of demonstrated excellence in public school teaching
• sensitivity to equity issues
• work experience with adult learners (recommended)
• previous School Associate experience (recommended)
• experience with computer technology (recommended)

If you would like an application or have any questions regarding this posting, please contact: Karen Hansen at 778.782.4358 or karen_hansen@sfu.ca. Completed applications, together with supporting documents, should be emailed to Karen Hansen no later than April 15th, 2016.
