

Article 26: Part-Time Continuing Appointments

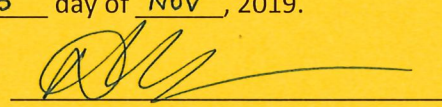

- 26.1 A part-time faculty member is one who performs the duties and responsibilities of a full-time faculty member, but with a reduced load.
- 26.2 Part-time continuing faculty will be considered for probation, contract renewal, continuing appointment, tenure and promotion according to the same terms as full-time faculty. Assessments will take into consideration the percentage of full-time of the candidate under review. *Where a part-time continuing Teaching Faculty member has taught fewer than four courses at the time of consideration for a continuing appointment, review may be delayed for up to 12 months.
- 26.3 Part-time continuing faculty may participate in departmental, Faculty, or University service and collegial governance, but may not participate in elections restricted by the University Act to full-time faculty.
- 26.4 Salary for part-time faculty will be commensurate with individual qualifications and experience and consistent with the salary scale, pro-rated to the level of appointment. Salary review for part-time continuing faculty will be in accordance with the terms for full-time faculty.

This clause to be deleted should the parties agree to an extension of the probationary period in Article 35: Teaching Appointments.*

This article is agreed to by the parties on this 5 day of Nov, 2019.
