RE Closing Canadian Studies

DATE December 7, 2009

FASS would like to permanently close Canadian Studies by applying policy 09-42R. Would you please bring this decision to SCUS? Admission into CNS courses has already been suspended.

Please find attached the proposal to terminate the CNS program.

Dean FASS

- The termination of Canadian Studies will mean the elimination of Honours, Major, Extended Minor, and Minor programs in Canadian Studies. It will mean the elimination of joint majors and honours programs with the Departments of Archaeology, Criminology, Economics, English, Geography, History, Political Science, and Sociology and Anthropology, the School of Communication; and Business Administration. It will mean an elimination of the certificate in French Canadian Studies and the closing of the Centre for Canadian Studies.
- 2. The program is located in the Centre for Canadian Studies. The Centre has been closed since the summer of 2009.
- 3. The program was offered through the Centre for Canadian Studies, which is housed in FASS, and drew on courses with Canadian content from Communications, Archeology, Contemporary Arts, Criminology, Economics, English, First Nations Studies, French, Geography, History, Latin American Studies, Political Science, Sociology/Anthropology, Women's Studies, Business Administration, and Biology.
- 4. Proposed date for termination: September 2010. Please note: no Canadian Studies course have been or will be offered in the 2009-2010 academic year.
- 5. Reasons for termination of the program:
  - a. There are insufficient resources to maintain the program. Canadian Studies courses have been taught almost exclusively by sessional and limited-term instructors. FASS's budget will no longer allow for the hiring of sessional instructors in sufficient numbers to maintain the courses.
  - b. While Canadian Studies courses have been popular as electives, the program has had very few majors (less than 10) in many years.
  - c. There are also curricular issues: when Canadian Studies began in the 1970s, few departments offered courses with strong Canadian content. That is no longer true: there are over 150 courses with Canadian content in the calendar.

6. Plans for termination:

- a. Students who had majors and minors in the Canadian Studies were notified of possible closure of the program last year.
- b. I met with the members of the Canadian Studies steering committee in the fall of 2008 to discuss the closing of the program.
- c. All students who were majoring or minoring in Canadian Studies were contacted by FASS advisors in the spring of 2009. Arrangements were made for all the students to complete their intended degrees.
- d. The departments in FASS were consulted by the Associate Dean at two curriculum committee meetings, one on Nov. 19th 2009, and Sept. 10, 2009. The associate Dean of Business was advised of the termination at SCUS.
- 7. The current calendar language reads "Students will no longer be admitted to the Canadian studies major, minor, honors or joint major programs effective for the fall 2009 term. Also, Canadian studies courses will not be offered after the summer 2009 term. Students contemplating entering one of these programs are - advised to check with the advisor." In the 2010 calendar, all references to Canadian Studies will be removed.

- 8. Associate Dean Paul Budra (budra@sfu.ca, 24416) should be contacted if more information is needed.
