Scholarships for Aboriginal youth to attend Faculty of Medicine at U. of T this summer are open! At MED YSP, students will be able to explore careers in health sciences/medicine through hands-on laboratories spanning the fields of physiology to microbiology; as well as they will engage with physicians, researchers and their peers. Students who attend the program will live on campus under supervision and will also have the opportunity to explore the campus and Toronto, Canada's largest multi-cultural city. April 8th 2016 Deadline www.ysp.utoronto.ca/med/application/scholarships

Spirit of the Children Society (SOTCS) Board of Directors seeks Board member with a finance background SOTCS is a non-profit charitable society that provides Indigenous culturally-based services for children, youth and families who are generally in Tri-Cities (Burnaby, NW, Coquitlam etc.). The candidate sought would ideally, but not necessarily, be of Indigenous descent and have a basic understanding of the challenges and hardships faced by Indigenous peoples in Canada. The role is voluntary and meetings are monthly generally, on the last Monday of the month. This is an ideal opportunity for community service that can make a difference. If interested in becoming a Board of Directors member, please contact Darlene Willier, Board President at darlene.willier@kpu.ca
