

IMAGINE BC

Dialogues on the Future of British Columbia

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

Facing the future with resilience: how will BC communities do it?

Please join IMAGINE BC delegates and guests in conversation with Mark Forsythe, host of CBC's BC Almanac, as they discuss the creation of healthy, resilient communities in BC with a focus on making these communities healthy for youth, seniors, and those who are often marginalized.

Add your voice to this important conversation and consider actionable steps to create resilient communities in BC.

Friday March 28, 2008

11:30 am–5:00 pm

Morris J. Wosk Centre for Dialogue
580 West Hastings Street, Vancouver, BC

This event will be broadcast live on CBC Radio One's BC Almanac at 12 noon.

Please have your lunch before you arrive as food is not permitted during taping. There will be a mid-session refreshment break and a reception will follow.

The event is free but seating is limited and registration is required. Reserve your seat by calling 778-782-5100.

Questions? Please contact Jessica Plescia 778-782-7915

Imagine BC is a five-year series of dialogues that seeks to create a non-partisan forum for diverse perspectives about the future of the province. Imagine BC brings a forward-thinking perspective to examining British Columbia's future. The program is an initiative of Dialogue Programs in Continuing Studies at Simon Fraser University in association with the Morris J. Wosk Centre for Dialogue.

www.imaginebc.ca

SFU

With thanks to our sponsors:

NORTH GROWTH FOUNDATION

