SFU English Language and Culture Program

Since 1995, the English Language and Culture (ELC) Program at Simon Fraser University has been preparing students for academic and business success.

We take a unique approach to language learning by exposing participants to a highly interactive and challenging classroom environment.

Message from the Dean

Welcome to the English Language and Culture Program (ELC) at Simon Fraser University. SFU is consistently ranked as one of the top universities in Canada and has a long tradition of providing quality instruction to assist people in developing and achieving their educational and personal goals.

We welcome you into our community. Here you will work with others to gain first-hand information about, and insight into, Canadian university life. As a member of the SFU ELC community, you will have access to the university's computer labs and libraries. While you're here, please visit the Centre for International Students, operated by the Student Services Society, where you will find plenty of opportunities to connect with other students — both Canadian and international. Welcome — and enjoy your time at SFU!

Helen Wussow, Dean
Continuing Studies, Simon Fraser University

Message from the Director

As Director of ELC, I welcome you to Vancouver and to our program. We are committed to providing you with an enriching cultural learning experience and helping you to strengthen your English communication skills. Whether you are an international student seeking entrance to a Canadian university or a working professional pursuing your career path, ELC offers a range of programs to help you improve your English communication skills and realize your goals.

ELC has been preparing students with first languages other than English for academic and business success since 1995. Our approach at ELC is designed to equip you with the skills and strategies needed for long-term success in whatever pathway you choose.

You will be immersed in a dynamic learning environment at SFU's campus in downtown Vancouver. ELC connects you to a world of possibilities. Welcome!

Colleen Wood, Director
English Language and Culture Program

12-WEEK / 8-WEEK / 4-WEEK PROGRAMS

Our Programs

After completing our placement tests, you will be placed in the curriculum level that best suits your needs:

Introductory Level: Focus on vocabulary development, fluency-building.

Intermediate Level: Focus on increasing fluency and listening comprehension.

Advanced Level: Focus on achieving the ability to communicate with native-speaker-like proficiency in order to realize professional or academic goals.

Fees include all course materials, field trips and tuition.

Health insurance is required for all SFU students. You must provide proof of medical insurance within 2 weeks of beginning your program.

Fees do not include travel, transportation or homestay.

Custom Programs: Schools, companies and organizations can create a customized program designed for a specific group of students—4 weeks or longer. Contact elc@sfu.ca for a course outline to get you started.

Homestay

We work exclusively with North Vancouver-based First Choice International Placement Inc. to provide homestay services for our international students.
