

ALESSANDRA CAPPERDONI is Ruth Wynn Woodward Limited-Term Lecturer in the Department of Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies at Simon Fraser University, B.C. A graduate in Foreign Languages and Literatures from the Università degli Studi di Bologna (Italy), she holds a Ph.D. in English (Comparative Poetics and Canadian Literature) from Simon Fraser University, B.C. (2006). Her research focuses on modernist and postmodern women's literature; feminist poetics and theory; Canadian literature and culture; feminist translation; feminist postcolonial and diaspora studies; and psychoanalysis and feminism. She has published on Canadian feminist poetics, experimental writings, feminist translation, transgenderism and transsexuality, and diaspora. She is preparing a monograph, provisionally entitled Shifting Geographies: Poetics of Citizenship in the Age of Global Modernity.