

Dr. Jorge Calderón is Assistant Professor of literature and culture in the Department of French. His main areas of interest are the novel, cultural studies, and theories of identity and otherness (race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality). He has published articles about French Existentialism, the Nouveau Roman, and gay writing.