

Helen Hok-Sze Leung is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Women's Studies at Simon Fraser University. Her research interest includes Queer Asian cinemas, queer and transgender cultural politics in Asia, Sinophone film and cultural studies, and studies of nationalism and postcoloniality. Her articles have appeared in numerous anthologies and journals. Her first book Undercurrents: Queer Culture and Postcolonial Hong Kong is forthcoming in 2008 from the University of British Columbia Press.