

Meredith Kimball received her Ph.D. in developmental psychology from the University of Michigan. From 1976 to 2004 she held a joint appointment in Psychology and Women's Studies at Simon Fraser University in Burnaby, BC Canada. Her research interests include gender and achievement, feminist theories of gender similarities and differences, and the history of women in psychology and psychoanalysis. Since retirement she is pursuing new interests, including quilting which is fast becoming a passion.