

INDIGENOUS SFU

Indigenous SFU

The Indigenous Online Learning Community website highlights programs, student services, traditional events and other support for self identified First Nations, Inuit and Métis Students

FNSA

OAP

ISC

The First Nations Student Association is an independent student-run organization for all self-identified Aboriginal, First Nations, Inuit, Métis, and Status/Non-Status students here at SFU that personally, academically, and culturally support First Nations students. For more information email fnsa-board@sfu.ca

The Office for Aboriginal Peoples (OAP) was established in 2009 and its first Director, William G. Lindsay, began his tenure in January 2010. The mandate of the OAP is to take the lead on implementing the Aboriginal Strategic plan at Simon Fraser University.

The Indigenous Student Centre provides programs, student services, traditional events, and other support to self-identified First Nations, Inuit, and Metis students. Visit <http://students.sfu.ca/indigenous/> for more information or call 778-782-6929.

FIRST NATIONS STUDENT ASSOCIATION

OFFICE FOR ABORIGINAL PEOPLES

INDIGENOUS STUDENT CENTRE