

Charlene Wong

Kind, loving, outgoing, and sociable
60 years old
Widowed
Retired nurse, volunteers at youth clinic
West Vancouver

"Home is where ever I'm with my friends and family."

Goal: Believing strongly that today’s youth are the key to the future, Charlene strives to help and nurture this younger generation. She also wishes to visit her son in Hong Kong one day.
Inspiration: The energy of the youths. The death of her husband encourages her to do good deeds.

Family:
Husband, Yi Chang Wong, past away 2 years ago from cancer at the age of 70
Their son, Eric Wong (34) lives in Hong Kong with his wife and 2 kids (6, 8)

Physical Health:
Poor eyesight
Tires easily

Technology:
Has Nokia phone, only knows how to make and recieve calls
Doesn't use computer
Still hand writes letters

Activities:
Watches lots of tv (news, Chinese drama)
Cooks for her neighbours and bakes for the club
Hangs out with a group of friends for dim sum Talks about her previous travels
Good friend with Mike and often invited to have dinner at Mike’s home
Often participates activities with Rotary Club Loves to talk to everyone in the club and always helps with breakfast preparation on Thursday