

Overview – Mike Robinson

Mike is 48 years old. He's married to Martha Williams Robinson, 46, and he has three kids. Jay Robinson, 26, is his eldest kid, Alex Robinson, 24, and Sophia Robinson, 20. His wife, Martha is a former accountant. She's retired early to become a housewife.

Mike is an ambitious person. He gets frustrated easily if people interrupt him when he's trying to concentrate but he's a family oriented and easygoing person. Mike speaks English and French.

A Day in the Life

Mike wakes up early in the morning for the Rotary Club weekly meeting. The meeting usually ends around 8:30 AM then Mike leaves to work right away. He finishes his work at 4 PM and gets home to relax. At home, he watches TV and keeps his wife company.

Work Activities

Mike works as an accountant Manning Elliott LLP from Monday to Friday, 9AM to 4PM. He earns around $160 000 a year as an accountant.

At the Rotary Club, he is a bookkeeper. The reason for joining the club is because his kids are moving out, so Mike decides to get involved with the Rotary Club in order to keep him busy. He likes volunteering to help the less fortunate. He has a strong sense of altruism.

Household and Leisure Activities

Mike lives in North Vancouver in a 5-bedroom house close to Rotary Club. He owns a RS4 Audi and a BMW X5.

His hobbies are playing golf and skiing during winter with family. For weekend activities, he usually does the gardening with Martha and watches TV after work. He also invites Charlene home for dinner sometimes. Mike is a Lion's fan and he loves watching them play.

Goals, Fears and Aspirations

Mike's goal is to go to Mozambique with Martha and Sophia to help build a few public schools for villagers. Mike also hopes that Sophia will successfully graduate from college and be able to secure a decent job.

Inspirations

Mike is inspired by his family and he feels the need to give back to the community. He often looks at the less fortunate people and consider himself as a lucky person to be blessed with a wonderful family and a stable career.

Computer Skills, Knowledge and Abilities

Mike uses Windows XP. He's very familiar with Window's Excel and he owns a BlackBerry Bold 9900. He also has an iPad 2 as a portable device that he can carry around. He's an intermediate computer user. His computer skills is just enough for his work and daily life.

Physical Health

Mike has high blood pressure and slight vision problem due to age. He always tries to avoid doing any activities that may harm his health and he's very cautious about his health. To Mike, his health is very important because he has a lot of people in his life and he has a lot of things to do for people around him.

Interview Data

Mike, unlike other many members in the club, is quite a technical guide. Because he is an accountant, he's comfortable with intermediate level of technology. He also loves to do activities outdoor and tend to move a lot. He's lived in many places including Whistler, Burnaby, North Vancouver and Coquitlam etc.

Quote

"I don't understand people who says they are bored, to me it is just an act of unproductiveness and lack of motivation."