

Socio-cultural Theory in Education: A Context

Saturday March 25, 2006

9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

SFU Burnaby: Education Building - CET

Presenters: Carl Cloake, Xin Du and Bhuvinder Vaid

TIME	ACTIVITY
9:00 AM	Morning Coffee (Astrid, Andrea and Haidou)  Everyone, please bring $5 to help cover the costs
9:20	Learning Mobility: Conversational English, ESL learners and cell phones Dr. Julie Zilber, 7 th Floor Media, SFU Education @ Harbour Centre
11:00	809 Portfolio Presentation (Stan Mah)
11:20	Coffee Break
11:30	Socio-Cultural Theory in Education: An Introduction (Beev & Carl)
12:15	LUNCH There is no lunch provided – the Cornerstone Bldg will be open on campus.
1:00	A Grand Narrative - Vygotsky in Education (Xin)
1:30	Socio-Cultural Theory in Education: Epistemological Implications (Beev)
2:00	Video as Data: An ethnographic and reflective approach (Carl)
3:30	Conclusion (Carl)
4:00	END of Seminar

Suggested Reading:

Namukasa, I. (December 2003). What Counts as Knowing? Is Knowing Free of Culture and Context? Educational Insights, 8(2). Retrieval from:

www.ccfi.educ.ubc.ca/publication/insights/v08n02/contextualexplorations/sumara/namukasa.html