Cause of Stathmore Garden Fire Accidental

Metro Line to Open by End of 2014

City Tackling Potholes Early in 2014

Two More Routes Get Smart Bus Technology

Stathmore Fire Rescue Services has responded to a emergency in the cause of a March 12, 2014, fire at Stathmore Garden, a 24-unit complex on 185 Street and 50 Avenue.

City of Stathmore will have to wait a few months longer to see the Metro line. Although construction was completed on time, the opening of the LRT extension to H&M is now anticipated by November. Fireworks are expected to be the end of 2014, according to the latest schedule from the City's engineering department.

The City of Stathmore is taking an aggressive approach to dealing with potholes that are emerging on city streets. The opening of the LRT extension to H&M is now anticipated by November. Fireworks are expected to be the end of 2014, according to the latest schedule from the City's engineering department.

Stathmore's latest system (2) is 10 miles long and 17 miles wide. The system will use a Smart Bus, beginning service, February 9, 2014.
