Position Titles: Head Instructor – ESL Kids, ESL Youth, ESL Teen OR ESL International Camp (4 positions available)

Position & Camp Summary
Simon Fraser University Summer Camp Head Instructors are responsible for providing a safe and fun environment for campers and leading by example when working with other staff and volunteers. Head Instructors develop and implement age appropriate activity plans for their camps and provide leadership for campers, instructors, and volunteers. The successful candidate will be an energetic, active, and responsible camp leader who works well in a team. ESL Camps are full day, one week educational camps for children 6-9 years (ESL Kids), 9-12 years (ESL Youth), or 13-17 years (ESL Teen) for whom English is not a first language. Each week consists of three on-campus days and two field trip days. The children who attend ESL camp come from many different countries, have many different first languages, and have varying levels of English when they enter camp. A typical day with each of the camps may include 4 hours of instructional time held in the classroom and 2 hours of recreational activity time that includes co-operative games, sports, and swimming. ESL Head instructors should create and implement lessons to teach the basics of the English Language incorporated into fun activities.
