Position & Camp Summary:
Simon Fraser University Camp Head Instructors are responsible for providing a safe, fun, and educational experience for campers between the ages 5-17 years old. Head Instructors develop and implement age appropriate activities for their camp. They are a role model for younger campers and lead by example, by providing mentorship to fellow staff and volunteers. H2O Wonders is a week-long aquatic camp for campers ages 8-12. The Head Instructor is responsible for developing water based activities and games. Each week the camp will have a different theme, some examples may include the following: Pirates of the Sea, The Amazing Race, and All Around The World incorporating activities and games adapted to fit each theme. Campers will also have the opportunity to engage in active play using kayaks, snorkel, and participate in scuba diving activities. Every Friday, campers will embark on a field trip to a pre-determined location such as the Vancouver Aquarium. The successful candidate will have a willingness to stay in the water for approximately 5 – 6 hours on a daily basis.
