Awards and scholarships:

Indigenous Graduate Students Funding

1. Graduate Aboriginal Entrance Scholarship $15,000 per year for master’s students $18,000 per year for doctoral students

2. Aboriginal Community Engagement Award Awards (up to $5,000 annually) are available each year to full time graduate Aboriginal students. Students must be in good academic standing and also have demonstrated excellence in one or more of the following: service to the University, community service, cultural contribution and/or overcoming personal or systemic barriers.

   http://students.sfu.ca/financialaid/indigenous-students/awards.html

3. The Aboriginal Health Sciences Graduate Fellowships The fellowship will be a single award of $13,800. The successful applicant will also have the opportunity to hold an SFU teaching assistantship during their studies.

4. EMBA Scholarship for Aboriginal Leaders (Executive MBA in Aboriginal Business and Leadership) The purpose of the EMBA Scholarship for Aboriginal Leaders is to recognize and reward an outstanding Aboriginal student in the Executive MBA in Aboriginal Business and Leadership Cohort. One scholarship, valued at approximately $10,000 will be awarded over two terms (Fall & Spring). The scholarship is based on academic merit and is to be used towards the cost of tuition.

   http://beedie.sfu.ca/EMBA-Aboriginal-Business-Leadership/funding/
5. Robert Russell Family/First Nations Graduate Award Provide financial support for a First Nations or aboriginal graduate student who is entering or pursuing graduate studies in the Faculty of Education, the Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences, the Faculty of Science, the Faculty of Health Sciences or the Faculty of Applied Sciences. The award is valued at a portion of the earned income and will be awarded annually.

   http://www.sfu.ca/dean-gradstudies/awards/privateawards/all-awards/russell.html

6. Aboriginal Graduate Student Bursary Award for Academic Conference Attendance and Presentation This award is for Aboriginal graduate students who wish to attend and present at academic conferences. SFU recognizes the value in career preparation/advancement associated with academic conference attendance and participation. See

   http://www.sfu.ca/aboriginalpeoples/aboriginal-graduate-student-stipend-for-academic-conference-atte.html

7. Aboriginal Students Conference Stipends In order to assist Aboriginal health sciences students attend conferences, 4 travel stipends of $2,000 each per year are to be allotted to Aboriginal undergraduate or graduate students in the Faculties of Science or Health Sciences enrolled in health sciences courses for use toward health sciences conference attendance and related travel expenses

   http://www.sfu.ca/fhs/future-students/graduate/funding.html

8. Aboriginal Graduate Student Grants Four grants of $3,000 each per year will be made available to Aboriginal graduate students enrolled in the Faculties of Science or Health Sciences who are undertaking research or practicum placements in population health or biomedical sciences.

   http://www.sfu.ca/fhs/future-students/graduate/funding.html
Bursaries:

1. Aboriginal Student Bursary Program Available each term to entering and continuing aboriginal students attending SFU who have a living connection to their own aboriginal community. Awards will be made to students in good academic standing on the basis of demonstrated financial need.  http://students.sfu.ca/financialaid/indigenous-students/bursaries.html

2. Laura (Pat) Band and Richard W. Band Bursary for First Nations students This bursary is granted in any term based on financial need and community service to a student who is a member of the Squamish, Fort Langley, or Cheam First Nations and who have demonstrated volunteer involvement in service to the University or the community at large. Graduate student will have completed 2 terms of study and will have achieved a minimum CGPA of 3.00.  http://students.sfu.ca/financialaid/indigenous-students/bursaries.html

3. Squamish Nation Bursary This bursary, based on financial need and community service, is granted to a student who is a member of the Squamish Nation. The successful graduate student will have completed 2 terms of study and will have achieved a minimum CGPA of 3.00. The application should include a discussion of the student’s involvement in SFU or Squamish Nation community activities and confirmation of the student’s status with the Squamish Nation.  http://students.sfu.ca/financialaid/indigenous-students/bursaries.html