- A temporary full-time primary-intermediate teacher is required by School District No.60 (Peace River North) effective September 1, 2018 - June 30, 2019. The assignment will be at Prespatou Elementary/Secondary School.

Prespatou Elementary Secondary is a vibrant K-12 school located in a beautiful rural setting approximately one hour’s drive from Fort St John. The school’s population is just over 320 students from Kindergarten to grade 12. Prespatou School services a broad range of students from the communities of Prespatou, Buick Creek and Blueberry River First Nations. The students speak a variety of languages such as Low German, Beaver, Cree and Russian. Our students enjoy an active lifestyle at home and at school. The school building is the hub for the community with many events held regularly (meetings, gym nights, sewing, music, dinners, weddings). Educational services provided include English as a Second Language, Learning Assistance, and Inclusion. Staffing currently includes 16 K-12 teachers, 3.5 support educators and 9 support staff. We value the relationship between school, community and our PAC. Our PAC has 12 elected members who meet monthly.
