Certified Teachers needed this summer!

EduTour Homestay Associates.
ESL programs in the lower mainland.

We are looking for certified teachers to teach ESL this summer to Japanese High School aged students. We have various groups in the lower mainland. It is a contractual position. Training is provided. Each group has a different length of stay. If you are interested in summer work, please contact Margot Olah at margot@edutour.ca for further information. We are accepting resumes at this time.

“Learn about a new culture, it is a great way to have your children learn about the world!”