In addition to the major requirements as outlined below, a degree requires additional credit to total a minimum of 120 credits. Of that, a minimum 45 credits must be upper division. Students admitted to SFU beginning Fall 2006 must also complete the WQB graduation requirements as follows:

6 Writing Credits (W)
*(including one w/d writing course taken at SFU)

6 Quantitative Credits (Q)

Designated and undesignated breadth credits must be outside the student’s major:

6 Social Science Breadth Credits (B-Soc)

6 Humanities Breadth Credits (B-Hum)

6 Science Breadth Credits (B-Sci)

6 Undesignated Breadth Credits

Students should take their first W and Q courses during their first 30 credit hours, and must complete them within their first 60 credit hours. The second required W course must be an upper-division course. B courses should be taken in a timely manner, keeping in mind that students should average roughly one B course per semester.

Possible Breadth Course Choices:
ARCH 131-3 Human Origins --- B-Soc or B-Sci
COGS 100-3 Introduction to Cognitive Science --- B-Hum or B-Soc or B-Sci
EDUC 250-3 Studies in the History of Education in the Western World --- B-Hum or B-Soc
FNST 101-3 The Cultures, Languages and Origins of Canada’s First Peoples --- B-Hum or B-Soc
PHIL 144-3 Philosophy of Science --- B-Hum or B-Sci
SCI 300-3 Science and its Impact on Society --- B-Sci
WS 316-4 Disciplining Sex: Feminist Science Studies and Sociobiology --- B-Hum or B-Soc or B-Sci

General WQB Requirements: For a complete list of WQB courses visit http://students.sfu.ca/wqb/.

A course may count as Q and B, or W and B, or W and Q, or W, Q and B. If a course has multiple B designations, students must decide which designation of a course to use in order to fulfill their requirements.

NOTE: A grade of C- or better is required to earn W, Q or B credit.
