Transgender Day of Remembrance is November 20th

Transgender Day of Remembrance is an occasion in the LGBT community set aside to memorialize those who were killed due to anti-transgender hatred or prejudice (transphobia).

Monday, November 15th:
• Gender Panel Discussion @ MBC 2294, 3:30-4:30pm
  o Listen to stories from transgender and gender variant people and get the chance to ask questions.

Tuesday, November 16th:
• Transgender & Gender Variant Discussion Group @ Out On Campus lounge, 5:30-7pm
  o A discussion group for transgender and gender variant people. Cisgender people are welcome to attend, but are encouraged to listen and give up their speaking privilege.

Thursday, November 18th:
• Gender Workshop @ MBC 2294, 2:30-4:30pm
  o Learn more about gender, how it works in society and how to deconstruct your own gender.
• Movie Screening @ Out On Campus lounge, 6-9pm
  o Catch a gender-positive movie – free snacks provided.

Saturday, November 20th:
• Memorial and Vigil @ Harbour Centre room 1800, 6:30-8:30pm
  o Join the Vancouver TDOR group in remembering the fallen.

Do you believe we should be able to express our genders without ridicule or violence? Come get involved with TDOR and join the call to end violence towards transgender and gender variant people.
