Professor Olena Hankivsky will talk about her experiences in the Ukraine as part of the Canadian election observer team. She will focus on the role of election observers in the evolution of democracy in Ukraine.

Dr. Olena Hankivsky (Associate Professor) B.A. (Toronto), M.A. PhD (Western Ontario) specializes in public policy and political theory and has a particular interest in gender and social and health policy.