Presents:

Muslim Feminisms
Reflections on Muslim Feminist Theory and the State of Women's Rights

Dana Mohammed Olwan is the Ruth Wynn Woodward Junior Chair at the Dept. of Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies at SFU. She is writing a book tentatively entitled, Bodies that Matter in Death: Honour Killings in Canadian Racial Logics.

Itrath Syed is a PhD student at the School of Communication at SFU. Her research analyzes “moral panics” over Muslim bodies in the West. Itrath has worked in the anti-violence field at a rape crisis centre and transition houses for battered women in Vancouver.
