81.6% of students reported feeling exhausted (not from physical activity).

62.1% of students reported feeling very sad.

38.2% of students reported feeling very lonely.

57% of respondents reported that it is taking longer than expected to complete their degree.

12% vs 40% of working students vs non-working students participate in extra-curricular activities.

19% vs 40% of working students vs non-working students are currently employed.

11% of students work 30 hours or more per week.

90% of students are registered in at least 9 credits.

60% of students graduate with debt at an average of $37,000.

55% of students are currently employed.

3.5% of respondents reported that it is taking longer than expected to complete their degree.

43.9% reported academics as being traumatic or very difficult to handle.

13% are international students.

43% of students identify themselves as English as an additional language.

26% speak no English at home.

81.6% of students reported feeling exhausted (not from physical activity).

62.1% of students reported feeling very sad.

38.2% of students reported feeling very lonely.

“There has been a significant increase of young workers in temporary, insecure, or contract work, from 8 to 12% percent” - Shaker & Macdonald.