D. INTERNATIONAL STUDIES MAJOR – FOREIGN CULTURAL COMPONENT:

1. Language proficiency:

   Demonstrated proficiency in a second language will consist of one of the following:
   - The equivalent of two 200 level courses within the same language in a Simon Fraser University language program (either through completion of courses, course challenge, or placement tests)
   - Completion of high school equivalency in a language other than English in a foreign country *
   - Completion of high school in a francophone educational system within Canada (i.e. French immersion or in a Francophone province) *

   * The School for International Studies will require a copy of the high school transcript, officially translated where necessary.

Students must obtain a grade of C- or higher in all required lower and upper division courses used towards an International Studies Major, Minor or Honors program.
