The Department of Linguistics invites you to our FALL Poster Session

Join us to learn more about recent research by Linguistics Department members:

Thursday December 7, 2017
10:00 am – 12:00 pm
Halpern 126
FALL 2017 Poster Session

Presenters

Heikal Badrulhisham
"Turkish Polar Question Morpheme Placement"

Valerie Bob
"100 Hul’q’umi’num’ Stories: Childhood Remembrances"

Lydia Castro
“Wh-Movement in ASL”

Sylvia Cho
"Effects of Clear Speech and Language Background on Multimodal Perception of English Fricatives”

Xizi Deng
"Processing Prosody to Avoid Ambiguity in Sentence Comprehension: Evidence from Tone Sandhi Pattern in Shanghainese”

Chung-hye Han, Sara Williamson, Logan Born, Anoop Sarkar
“Coordination in TAG Without the Conjoin Operation”

Panayiotis Pappas, Maite Taboada, Kathryn Alexander
“Teaching Linguistic Argumentation Through a Writing-Intensive Approach”

Ethan Pincott
“Morphosemantics of Place Names in the Squamish Language”

Irina Presnyakova, Panayiotis Pappas, Pocolo Umbal
“The Effect of Ethnic Heritage on the Canadian Shift of Vancouver Speakers”

Helen Zhang
"Information Structure and Pronoun Resolution in Spanish"