CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS
(DRAFTED BY THE FACULTY COUNCIL FOR THE APPROVAL OF SENATE)

1. GENERAL

This code of conduct is issued under the authority of the Senate, Simon Fraser University, in accordance with section 54-N of the Universities Act of British Columbia and is applicable to all students registered in the University. The enforcement of the rules and regulations contained in this code is the responsibility of the Faculty, University officers and security patrol. Offenders are subject to disciplinary action under this code. Disciplinary action taken in accordance with this code does not preclude the possibility of civil action as a result of breaking the law of the land.

The University does not assume parental obligations or responsibilities, but relies on the good sense and home training of the students in matters of personal conduct. The University expects the students to conduct themselves at all times in a manner which will be a credit to the University.

2. FACULTY COUNCIL

Faculty Council exercises disciplinary jurisdiction over these regulations and may impose fines and punishments for offences against these regulations.

3. TRAFFIC AND SECURITY PATROLS

The University Traffic and Security Patrol officers, under the supervision of the Traffic, Security and Fire Prevention Supervisor, are delegated authority to enforce the Code of Conduct.

4. IDENTIFICATION

Any student, when called upon to do so by Faculty or a University officer, or Security Patrol personnel, must produce his University Registration Card.

5. GAMBLING

Any form of gambling for money, or for any monetary equivalent is illegal and therefore is prohibited within the precincts of the University.

6. INTOXICATING LIQUORS

Drinking of intoxicating liquors, unless authorized under the Liquor Control Acts, is an offence under the Act and is prohibited. Persons showing evidence of being under the influence of intoxicating liquor while on the University campus will be subject to immediate eviction from the premises or such other action as is deemed warranted under the circumstances existent at the time.

7. UNLAWFUL ACTS

The use of University equipment or facilities without authority or the theft, malicious damage or misuse of University equipment or facilities, is unlawful.

8. REMOVAL OF EQUIPMENT

The removal of University furnishings and equipment from one location to another within the campus without authority is not permitted.
