Paper S-23

To: Senate

From: Senate Committee on Undergraduate Admissions and Standings

Subject: Re-admission of Students Required to Withdraw from the University.

The Committee has developed a series of steps to be taken regarding a student's standing as follows:

1. Warning letter - students are sent the attached letter with their examination results. This letter is not noted on the student's permanent record except by four asterisks in the semester comment, which is only meaningful to Simon Fraser faculty and staff.
2. Academic Probation - students are sent the attached letter with their examination results. This action is noted on the student's permanent record by the comment "Academic Probation".
3. Required to Withdraw - students are sent the attached letter with their examination results. This action is noted on the student's permanent record by the comment "Required to Withdraw".

While each student's record continues to be looked at individually, the decisions made by the Committee tend to follow this pattern:

Comment in immediately preceding semester	Grade Point Average	Decision
None	less than 2.00 but greater than 0.99	Warning
None	less than 1.00	Academic Probation
Warning	less than 2.00 but greater than 0.99	Academic Probation
Warning	less than 1.00	Required to Withdraw
Academic Probation	less than 2.00	Required to Withdraw

Obviously there are many exceptions to this pattern, but the Committee is now able to use it as a "rule of thumb" to begin discussion on the case.

To date the Committee has not required any student to withdraw permanently. Any student required to withdraw is told he or she may apply for re-admission after one calendar year. We now have students applying for re-admission after a one year's absence.

The Committee requests Senate ratification of the following policy:

- a. Normally, a student who has been required to withdraw from Simon Fraser for the first time, will be re-admitted after a period of one calendar year.
- b. Normally, no credit will be granted to a student on ^{re-admission} re-admission for academic work completed during the period of absence. Students required to withdraw will be so informed.
- c. Normally, students required to withdraw will be placed on academic probation on re-admission.
- d. Normally, a student required to withdraw from the University on two occasions will not be re-admitted.
