From: Faculty Council

1 August, 1967.

Subject: Procedures followed in the Templeton School Incident.

The following is a summary of Faculty Council's procedures involving five graduate students as a result of the Templeton School incident.

The Council met on Wednesday, March 15, 1967, at 8.30 a.m. at the request of the Chairman. The Chairman explained that he thought Faculty Council should discuss the events at Templeton School on March 10, 13 and 14, in which a number of Simon Fraser University students were involved.

Faculty Council discussed the events as it knew them and then interviewed one undergraduate and four of the five graduate students whose names appeared on a letter to the Templeton School students. Faculty Council, through the Chairman, informed the students that the purpose of the interviews was to assist in establishing the facts regarding the Templeton School incident which had been drawn to its attention.

The Council agreed that no action should be taken regarding the undergraduate.

It was agreed that the five graduate students should be interviewed by the Chairman and their Departmental Heads and that if the Chairman was satisfied with the results of the interviews, no further action was required.

On Thursday, May 11, 1967, the Faculty Council met and discussed a report from the Chairman on his interviews with the five graduate students. Faculty Council took note of the Chairman's report and decided to take no further action.

On July 6 Faculty Council met and received a memorandum from T.B. Bottomore to the Dean of Arts regarding: "Faculty Council Discussion on Four Graduate Students in the PSA Department". The Council also heard T.B. Bottomore explain his memorandum in person.

Faculty Council decided to note T.B. Bottomore's memorandum in the records and re-affirmed its previous decision to take no action regarding the five graduate students.
