

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

Occasional Students

S-86

MEMORANDUM

SM 8/1/68

To Senate

From The Centre for Communications and the Arts

Subject Occasional Studentship Procedures

Date November 27, 1967

14733-PC

The Centre for Communications and the Arts offers an extensive program of extra-curricular activities in Communications and the Arts (workshops, seminars, productions, and lectures) to students registered at Simon Fraser University, and many students undertake only a minimum credit course load in order to be able to participate in the Centre's activities.

The Centre now wishes to make it possible for suitable students to register in the Centre for Communications and the Arts as Occasional Students. This would enable them to participate full-time in the extra-curricular activities of the Centre without their being registered in any formal credit course. The Centre intends to limit such registration to students in their third semester or thereafter, and in good standing, and will require that each student be sponsored by two members of Faculty, one from outside the Centre.

The Centre, after consultation with the Registrar, recommends that Occasional Students pay a fee of $60.00 per semester plus the student activity fee, and that they be not normally permitted to remain as Occasional Students beyond two consecutive semesters.

The Centre requests the approval of Senate for these procedures.

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

MEMORANDUM

Paper S-86

SM 8/1/68

To D.P. Robertson
Secretary of Senate
Subject Occasional Studentship Procedures

From A.R. MacKinnon
Dean of Education
Date November 27, 1967

Attached is a proposal from the Centre for Communications and the Arts recommending Occasional Studentship Procedures in the Centre.

It is hoped that this program will be available for students beginning the Spring Semester 1968.

Att.

