MEMORANDUM

To SENATE

From SENATE COMMITTEE ON UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

Department of Criminology-
Subject Current Issues Courses (CRIM 416, 417, 418)

Date 20th May, 1976

Action taken by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies at its meeting of May 18th, gives rise to the following motions:

MOTION 1

That Senate approve a change in the prerequisite statement for Crim. 416- Current Issues in Criminology and Criminal Justice - to read: "Reserved for Criminology majors, honors and minors. Others admitted only on written permission of the Department".

NOTE

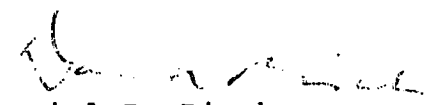

The motion conveys two changes requested by the Department: First, the addition of students intending to minor in Criminology to those previously eligible for the course; second, a change in the source of permission from Instructor to Department.

MOTION 2

That Senate approve and recommend approval to the Board of Governors Crim. 417-3 and Crim. 418-3, Current Issues in Criminology and Criminal Justice.

NOTE

The Criminology Department wishes to establish two more "Current Issues" courses in order to avoid confusion when multiple courses of the same type are mounted in a single semester. These are special topics courses and as such will be treated in the same way as special topics courses in other departments and faculties, i.e. individual offerings will be approved by the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee of the department in advance and subsequently forwarded to Senate for ratification.

MEMORANDUM

To	Dr. J. Weinkam, Chairman I.D.S. Undergraduate Curriculum Committee	From	Ezzat A. Fattah, Chairman Department of Criminology
Subject	CRIM 416 "Current Issues in Criminology & Criminal Justice"	Date	28 April 1976

The Department of Criminology is seeking approval to change the calendar entry for the subject course in the following manner:

Under "Prerequisites", the calendar entry currently reads "Reserved for criminology majors and honors; others admitted only on written permission of the instructor". The Department wishes to amend this to read: "Reserved for criminology majors, honors and minors. Others admitted only on written permission of the Department".

The latter part of the change: "written permission of the Department" should also apply to CRIM 417 and CRIM 418, the alternate course numbers for 416, as the New Course Proposal Forms prepared for these two courses currently read "written permission of the instructor".

Many of the students doing a minor in criminology have expressed interest in taking CRIM 416, and the Department of Criminology would like to make the course available to them.

The Department would appreciate the Committee's approval of the above changes.

MEMORANDUM

To.....	Dr. J. Weinkam, Chairman I.D.S. Undergraduate Curriculum Committee	From.....	Ezzat A. Fattah, Chairman Department of Criminology
Subject.....	CRIM 417 and CRIM 418 Course Proposal Forms	Date.....	27 January 1976

The Department of Criminology is seeking approval for two new courses; proposal forms for which are attached.

The Department already offers a course entitled "Current Issues in Criminology and Criminal Justice" (CRIM 416). However, if approved, CRIM 417 and CRIM 418 will be used as alternate courses. This will allow the Department to schedule a selected topics course three semesters in a row, and will also allow us the flexibility to schedule a selected topics course for the normal summer semester, the summer session and the intersession.

As a further note, students will not be permitted to take a selected topics course more than three times.

The Department of Criminology would appreciate the Committee's approval of CRIM 417 and CRIM 418.
