Subject Changes in Political Science Curriculum

Date February 25, 1977

The attached entry from the Department of Political Science was approved by the Faculty of Arts Curriculum Committee at its meeting of February 24, 1977. The Political Science department had changed its requirements last year when the new Faculty of Arts Regulations went into effect. After a year's experience with these requirements, the department has reviewed their effectiveness with students and faculty and decided to alter them. They realize that these changes will not be included in the 1977-78 Calendar, but that the department will be able to advise students of these changes once they receive Senate approval. Would you please place this submission on the agenda of the next SCUS meeting.

Thank you.
