CHANGE OF COURSE NUMBER From: "HIST 125-3 Britain from the Stuarts to the 20th Century."

to: "HIST 103-3 Britain from the Stuarts to the 20th Century."

CHANGE OF COURSE NUMBER From: "HIST 199-3 Studies in Historical Method."

to: "HIST 110-3 Studies in Historical Method."

p. 144

CHANGE OF COURSE NUMBER From: "HIST 217-3 Canada to Confederation"

to: "HIST 101-3 Canada to Confederation."

CHANGE OF COURSE NUMBER From: "HIST 218-3 Canada Since Confederation."

to: "HIST 102-3 Canada Since Confederation."

Because of these changes, Lower Division History courses will be listed in the following sequences:

HIST 101
HIST 102
HIST 103
HIST 110
HIST 146
HIST 151
HIST 190

Rationale:

The Department wishes to make Canadian History available to students at the 100 level and to encourage them to take it as an introduction to the discipline of history before they began to specialize in other fields of history. The numbers 101 and 102 have been chosen to indicate this intention.

The Introductory History of Britain has been renumbered to indicate to students that this is a course that they could tackle in their initial semester.

The experience of the department has been that the number 199 frightened students away from the department's introductory course in history method. Students assumed it to be close to a 200 level course in degree of difficulty and therefore avoided enrolling in it early in their careers and found it too
