Subject Consolidation of Feedback Seminars
with Field Practice Courses

From E.A. Fattah, Ph.D., Chairman
Dept. of Criminology

Date 2 February, 1977

I.S.C. 77-4

I am forwarding to you a memo from Mrs. Deanna Buckley, the Field Placement Coordinator of the Criminology Department, concerning the consolidation of feedback seminars with field practice courses.

This consolidation has been approved by the Criminology Department Undergraduate Curriculum Committee and we would like to see this item placed on the next meeting of the Faculty Undergraduate Curriculum Committee.

Thank you.

MEMORANDUM

Dr. Fattah

From Deanna Buckley

Coordinator of Field Practice

Date February 2, 1977

Subject Consolidation of Feedback Seminars
with Field Practice Courses

As it presently stands, the 3 Criminology Field Practice courses are worth 5 credits each with grade assignments of Pass or Withdraw. The 3 Criminology Field Practice Feedback courses are considered separate entities, each worth 1 credit and each with a final grade assignment of Pass or Withdraw.

Given the fact that the Feedback Seminars are an integral part of the Field Practice programme, these seminars should not be seen as courses separate from Field Practice, with their own credits and grades. I would therefore suggest that Field Practice and Field Practice Feedback be amalgamated to become one course entitled "Field Practice" which would have a credit allotment of 6 credits and a singular grade assignment of Pass or Withdraw. (We would then be left with Field Practice 360, 460 and 465 and would be eliminating Field Practice Feedback 361 461 and 466). Students registering for Field Practice 360, 460 or 465 would then be expected to complete the actual field assignments as well as participating in a series of Feedback Seminars which would directly relate to their experiences in the field.
