MEMORANDUM

S.79-143

To: Senate

From: Senate Committee on

Undergraduate Studies

Subject: Curriculum Changes -- Women's Studies

Date: November 15, 1979

Action taken by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Studies at its meeting on November 6, 1979 gives rise to the following motion:

MOTION

That Senate approve and recommend approval to the Board, as set forth in S79-143, the following changes in Women's Studies:

- (i) Addition of two new course numbers to W.S. 301-3 Special Topics in Women's Studies W.S. 302-3, 303-3.
- (ii) Addition of one new course number to W.S. 300-5 Special Topics in Women's Studies W.S. 310-5
- (iii) Course change W.S. 100-3

NOTE:

This motion represents an amendment to the proposal originally put forward by Women's Studies, i.e. that five new special topics courses be added at the 300 division. Members of SCUS also expressed the opinion that the Women's Studies Program should consider what restriction if any should be placed on the number of credits for special topics courses which could be applied toward a minor.

Chairman

ADDITION OF COURSE NUMBERS TO WOMEN'S STUDIES 301-3 RATIONALE:

The Women's Studies Program has been offering one or two 3 credit special topics courses each term, and this causes some confusion at the Registrar's Office, because students are permitted to receive credit for more than one 301 course provided that the topics are sufficiently different. Since many students have been taking two or more of these courses, adding the new numbers will greatly reduce the flow of memos between the Registrar's Office and the Women's Studies Co-ordinator. Six numbers will ensure that repetition does not occur within a year.

ADDITION OF COURSE NUMBER TO WOMEN'S STUDIES 300-5 RATIONALE:

This addition will avoid the same problem described for Women's Studies 301-3. Women's Studies 300-5 will be offered, at most, twice a year, and therefore one new number will be sufficient.
