MEMORANDUM

To Dr. C. Griffiths, Chairman,
Faculty of Interdisciplinary Studies
Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

From P. Copes, Director,
Centre for Canadian Studies

Subject Changes in History courses contained in the Canadian Studies curriculum

Date 4 November 1980

The Department of History has made a number of changes in its courses with Canadian content, of which we were made aware only today. The changes, in effect, invalidate much of that portion of the Canadian Studies curriculum based on History courses. The need for Canadian Studies to copy the relevant changes made by the History Department is self-evident. It is important that we obtain approval for these changes in time for the revisions to be included in the 1981/82 edition of the calendar. The corresponding changes in the History Department's section of the calendar have already been processed.

Could you please arrange, as soon as possible, for the Faculty of Interdisciplinary Studies Undergraduate Curriculum Committee to consider the following changes to the Centre for Canadian Studies curriculum:

1.a. DELETE: HIST 429-3 French Canada in the 19th and 20th Centuries

b. ADD: HIST 328-3 The Province of Quebec from Confederation
The economic, social, political and cultural history of Quebec.
(Lecture/Tutorial)
Prerequisite: HIST 101, 102 recommended.

2.a. DELETE: HIST 432-3 Canadian West

b. ADD: HIST 435-3 The Canadian Prairies
Selected problems in the social, economic, and political development of the Canadian Prairies.
(Seminar)
Prerequisite: HIST 101, 102 recommended.

c. ADD: HIST 436-3 British Columbia
Selected problems in the social, cultural, economic, and political development of British Columbia.
(Seminar)
Prerequisite: HIST 101, 102 recommended.

3.a. DELETE: HIST 434-3 The History of Native People in Canada

b. ADD: HIST 326-3 The History of Native People in Canada
An examination of native history and the evolution of native policy in Canada with emphasis on a particular region or native policy.
(N.B. No. 3 a. and b. comprise a change in number and level only - the description has not changed.)

4. The substitution of HIST 328-3 for HIST 429-3 should also apply to the French Canadian Studies Certificate Program.

The attached Canadian Studies Steering Committee Note requests that any objections by Canadian Studies Steering Committee members to these curriculum changes be conveyed to me no later than 10 November. I am not, however, anticipating any objections as the validity of the changes is self-evident. (If any objections are received, I will contact you on 11 November to withdraw this request.) I would appreciate FIDS UGCC consideration of the proposals as soon as is practicable, so that they may be submitted to SCUS' next meeting, if approved by the faculty curriculum committee.

STEERING COMMITTEE NOTES

1. Changes in History courses for Canadian Studies credit

There are a few changes to the History Department curriculum which should be reflected in the Centre's list of Canadian content courses. These changes have only just come to our attention, as we were preparing revisions to the Centre for Canadian Studies calendar entry. Owing to extreme time constraints, we have submitted the curriculum changes as calendar revisions and hope to receive the necessary approvals by the time the galleys are returned. Of course, if approval of these changes to the Canadian Studies curriculum is not forthcoming, the calendar entry will be adjusted accordingly.

The proposed changes to the Centre for Canadian Studies list of Canadian content courses are identical to the corresponding changes that have already been carried out in the History curriculum. They are as follows:

- 1.a. DELETE: HIST 429-3 French Canada in the 19th and 20th Centuries
- b. ADD: HIST 328-3 The Province of Quebec from Confederation
The economic, social, political and cultural history of Quebec.
- 2.a. DELETE: HIST 432-3 Canadian West
- b. ADD: HIST 435-3 The Canadian Prairies
Selected problems in the social, economic, and political development of the Canadian Prairies.
- c. ADD: HIST 436-3 British Columbia
Selected problems in the social, cultural, economic, and political development of British Columbia.
- 3.a. DELETE: HIST 434-3 The History of Native People in Canada
- b. ADD: HIST 326-3 The History of Native People in Canada
An examination of native history and the evolution of native policy in Canada with emphasis on a particular region or native policy.
(N.B. No. 3 a. and b. comprise a change in number and level only - the description has not changed.)
4. The substitution of HIST 328-3 for HIST 429-3 should also apply to the French Canadian Studies Certificate Program.

If you disagree with any of these planned curriculum changes, please contact me immediately. If any member of the Steering Committee wishes, I shall call a meeting of the Committee to discuss and decide on the matter. If I receive no objections by 10 November 1980, I will consider that the Steering Committee approves these changes to the Canadian Studies curriculum and will process them accordingly.
