CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAM IN SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

The Department of Sociology and Anthropology offers a Co-operative Education Program for students who wish to acquire practical experiences in the social sciences. The program entails planned semesters of study and employment in an area of the student's choice.

Requirements

In order to be admitted into the Co-operative Education Program, students must have completed 29 semester hours with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75. Prior to admission, students must complete:

S.A. 101
150
201 or 250
255

and one of

S.A. 202
203
263

College transfer students must complete at least 15 semester hours at SFU before becoming eligible for admission to the Co-op Program. They also must satisfy the requirements above or their equivalents.

College transfer students who have participated in co-op programs elsewhere may be credited with the semester(s) already taken. The applicability of such semesters depends on the evaluation of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology.

Arrangements for the work semesters are made through the Department's Co-op Coordinator, and the Faculty of Arts Co-op Coordinator.

In order to continue in the Co-operative Education Program, students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 in their academic coursework.

For further details, students should refer to the Co-operative Education section, page of the calendar.

Interested students should contact the Department of Sociology and Anthropology for further information.
