Academic Planning

Subject: Department of Communication:
Graduate Curriculum Change

Date: March 12, 1991

Action undertaken by the Senate Committee on Academic Planning and the Senate Graduate Studies Committee, gives rise to the following motion:

MOTION: "that Senate approve and recommend approval to the Board of Governors, as set forth in S.91-21, the language requirement in the Ph.D. program in the Department of Communication."

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

MEMORANDUM

To: Alison Watt, Secretary From: B.P. Clayman
Senate Committee on Academic Dean of Graduate Studies
Planning

Subject: Graduate Curriculum Change Date: January 30, 1991

The following addition to the Ph.D. requirements in the Department of Communication was approved by the Senate Graduate Studies Committee, at its Meeting on January 28, 1991, and is now being forwarded to the Senate Committee on Academic Planning for approval:

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

In order to graduate from the Ph.D. program, students normally will be required to demonstrate a reading ability in one language other than English that is acceptable to the student's supervisory committee. Ability will be determined by a time-limited examination consisting of the translation into English of a passage from an appropriate document or text related to Communication. A dictionary will be permitted. It is possible to waive this requirement only with the permission of the Graduate Program Committee.

B.P. Clayman
Dean of Graduate Studies.
