Director, Analytical Studies
Secretary to SCEMP

RE: International Student Intake
Targets for 1997/98-1999/2000
Faculty of Business Administration

DATE: February 28th, 1997

At its March 1994 meeting, Senate approved a motion from the Senate Committee on Academic Planning to extend for a period of three years (1994/95 to 1996/97) the 10% limit on admission of international students into the Faculty of Business at SFU (including majors, minors, honors, and including joint programs).

Since the Senate policy will end with the 1997-2 semester, The Senate Committee on Enrollment Management and Planning has approved a motion to extend this policy for an additional three years beginning in 1997-3.

Motion

"That SCAP approve and recommend approval to Senate that the number of international students, excluding exchange students, admitted into the Faculty of Business at SFU in the academic years 1997/98, 1998/99, and 1999/2000 be limited to a maximum of 10% of all admissions into the Faculty."
