MEMORANDUM

TO: Senate Committee on Academic Planning

FROM: W. J. Wattamaniuk
Director, Analytical Studies
Secretary to SCEMP

SUB: Limits on Int'l Student Admissions to Faculty of Business

DATE: February 3rd, 2000

At its March 1997 meeting, Senate approved a motion from the Senate Committee on Academic Planning to extend the 10% limit on admission of international students to the Faculty of Business at SFU (including Majors, Honors, Joint Majors, and Minors) for a period of three academic years (1997/98 to 1999/00). The attached table shows the actual number of international students who were admitted in each semester throughout this period.

The Senate Committee on Enrollment Management and Planning met on February 2, 2000 and agreed that the 10% limit should be extended for another three years.

Motion

"That SCAP approve and recommend approval to Senate and to the Board to limit the number of international students, excluding exchange students, who are admitted into undergraduate programs in the Faculty of Business at SFU to 10% of all admissions in the academic years 2000/01, 2001/02, and 2002/03."
