RE: Program Name Change and Acronym Change

DATE: May 25, 2011

This request to SGSC is that Senate approves the Graduate program name change from Women's Studies to Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies effective immediately. The course acronyms will change from WS to GSWS. These changes have already been effected at the undergraduate level.

Rationale: On December 7, 2009, Senate approved the change of the name of Department of Women's Studies to the Department of Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies. There are no changes to admission or degree requirements. These are not new programs. Consistent with the intent of the name change, acronyms will be globally changed to GSWS in SIMS, as recommended by the Assistant Registrar.
