

SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY
THINKING OF THE WORLD

SENATE SUMMARY MEETING OF FEBRUARY 6, 2012

1. Report of the Chair

Senate was informed that the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities has accepted SFU as a candidate for accreditation. Appreciation was expressed to all who have been involved with this process.

It was reported that there continues to be concern around funding from the provincial and federal governments but that steps have been taken, in the form of a recent visit to Ottawa and a planned visit to Victoria, to raise the profile of SFU and the importance of research funding in general.

The chair highlighted a few important dates that are coming up. A public launch of SFU's strategic vision is planned for February 20, 2012. It was noted that the tag line "thinking of the world" will be changing to "engaging the world" as approved by the Board at a recent meeting. On March 13, 2012, the chair will be taking part in a panel discussion at the British Council Going Global conference on the role of the university in contributing to society. An open house event is planned at SFU's Burnaby campus on May 26, 2012.

Steve Henslow was acknowledged for his many years of service at SFU and with Senate in the area of audio-visual support. This was his last Senate meeting due to his retirement.
