MEMORANDUM

ATTENTION SGSC Members
FROM Mary-Ellen Kelm, Acting Dean of Graduate Studies
RE: Revisions to GGR 1.16.3
DATE October 16, 2014
PAGES 1/1

Motion

That SGSC approve the revisions to GGR 1.16.3 Admission.

Rationale

The Committee to Review University Admissions no longer exists and so all admission appeals are now reviewed by the Senate Appeals Board, as per their revised terms of reference.

Proposed revisions to GGR 1.16.3 Admission

FROM	TO
1.16.3 Admission Applicants who meet or exceed minimum requirements for admission are not assured of admission to any graduate program (see 1.3.1 General) Normally, admission decisions may not be appealed (see 1.3.10 Application for Admission). In exceptional circumstances, unsuccessful applicants may appeal to the committee to review university admissions. This committee will only review the fairness of admissions procedures and will not review an applicant's credentials. Appeal forms are available at http://students.sfu.ca/forms/.	1.16.3 Admission Applicants who meet or exceed minimum requirements for admission are not assured of admission to any graduate program (see 1.3.1 General) Normally, admission decisions may not be appealed (see 1.3.10 Application for Admission).
