MEMORANDUM

ATTENTION	SGSC Members	DATE	December 11, 2014
FROM	Mary-Ellen Kelm, Acting Dean of Graduate Studies	PAGES	1/1
RE:	Revisions to GGR 1.7.6

Motion

That SGSC approve the revisions to GGR 1.7.6 (Courses in Master's and Doctoral Programs)

Revisions and Rationale

- This regulation did not specify a minimum passing grade for transfer credits, so a minimum of a B grade has been added. A B grade is consistent with what other universities require for a graduate transfer credit.
- Language has been added and revised to help clarify the intention of GGR 1.7.6.

Proposed revisions to GGR 1.7.6 Courses in Master's and Doctoral Programs

FROM	TO
1.7.6 Courses in Master's and Doctoral Programs The following rules apply to the minimum course work requirement: One half of the minimum course work of the University or departmental credential requirements must be completed at this University. None of the University minimum may be courses completed in order to qualify for admission. None of the University minimum may be undergraduate courses. A graduate student may apply to complete one or more courses at another university for credit towards a credential at Simon Fraser University under the following conditions: a) Such applications shall be made at least one month before the course/courses start and shall be approved by the graduate program committee and be sent to the Dean of Graduate Studies for final approval. b) While completing course/courses at another university under these provisions, the student shall maintain normal enrolment at this University, not enrolment on leave. c) Transfer credit is not used in the calculation of the cumulative grade point average. A graduate student may apply to have credit for graduate courses completed prior to admission applied to the requirements for the degree, under the following conditions: a) Courses must have been completed within three years of starting the Simon Fraser University program. b) Courses may not have been used to earn another	1.7.6 Courses in Master's and Doctoral Programs The following rules apply to the minimum course work requirement: One half of the minimum course work required for a credential (i.e. certificate, diploma, degree) must be completed at this University. three years of starting the Simon Fraser University program.

b) The courses must not have been applied toward the requirements for a previously completed credential, unless this is permitted in the Senate approved program requirements.

c) The courses must not have been completed while the student was admitted as a qualifying student.

d) Advance credit for courses from a certificate/diploma may comprise no more than 50 percent of the course requirements for a graduate degree; or advance credit for courses from a degree may comprise no more than 50 percent of the course requirements for a graduate certificate/diploma.

e) Application for advance credit must be approved by the graduate program committee and the dean of graduate studies, either before admission or retroactively within the first year of enrollment.

f) The minimum grade required is a B, although the grade achieved will not be included in the calculation of the cumulative grade point average.
