Re: Terrorism, Risk and Security Studies (TRSS) Course Changes

Dear Dr. Zwagerman,

TRSS would like to make some course changes. Accordingly, I ask you to seek approval from the FASS Graduate Studies Committee (GSC) for the following motions:

Motion 1

That the FASS GSC approve creation of the new acronym, TRSS (Terrorism, Risk and Security Studies), effective Summer 2020, to better reflect the interdisciplinary nature of the program.

Motion 2

That the FASS GSC approve change of the course acronym for all TRSS program courses from CRIM to TRSS effective Summer 2020, to better reflect the interdisciplinary nature of their content.

Motion 3

That the FASS GSC approve changes to the full titles or short titles of four courses effective Summer 2020, to better reflect the interdisciplinary nature of their content

Motion 4

That the FASS GSC approve changes to the descriptions for three courses to permit students to repeat them once for credit, to avoid the need to create new courses with similar content.

Attached is a list of our graduate courses with the required editorial changes noted.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Stephen D. Hart".

RE CMPT 626, 627, 628 – Update to indicate that
Department Consent is required for enrollment

DATE October 17, 2019

Dear Parvaneh,
I am writing to request that we make the following changes to our CMPT Co-op Courses:

Course Title and Course Short Title:
CMPT 626 – Coop Practicum I to Graduate Co-op I
CMPT 672 – Coop Practicum II to Graduate Co-op II
CMPT 628 – Coop Practicum III to Graduate Co-op III

Prerequisite: Add to all of CMPT 626, 627 and 628:
"Department Consent is required for enrollment".

This will ensure that students who do not have permission to enroll into these courses are not able to self-enroll.

The courses will be set-up in go.sfu.ca/sims to reflect this requirement and the system will not allow students to self-enroll.

Thank you.

Re: Course Changes for ENSC-701, 702, and 703

Dear GPS,

We are submitting course change forms for ENSC-701, 702, and 703. There are two changes:

- 1: The names of these courses are changed from Graduate Co-op Practicum I/II/III to Graduate Co-op I/II/III, in order to be in line with the new course component types, and make it clear to students when the work experience is facilitated through the Work Integrated Learning office.
- 2: Adding "Departmental consent required".
- 3: The calendar description of the Master of Engineering program is revised accordingly.

Best regards,
