Global Engagement Student Committee (GESC) is part of the larger program of Peer Education. Peer Educators commit to volunteering for two (2) terms; however, these terms do not need to be consecutive if the student is away for co-op or field school etc.

Your role as a GESC Peer has two components: the first is your role with the Global Engagement Student Committee, and the second component relates to your personal development. This position starts in the Summer 2019 term.

Program Overview

The Global Student Centre (GSC) is a student lounge located in AQ 2013 at the SFU Burnaby campus. It is a place for all things global, intercultural and international. It serves as a hub for creating intercultural connections, engaging in dialogue about global issues, and building intercultural engagement amongst the SFU community.

GESC peers work with the GSC team to help develop a community of International and Canadian student leaders at SFU with global and cultural understanding, which enables them to excel academically, professionally, socially, and psychologically. Working in collaboration with the staff at the GSC, the Global Engagement Student Committee is responsible for organizing and facilitating programs and initiatives that:

- Foster intercultural understanding and engagement in the SFU community
- Promote global awareness
- Celebrate diversity through education and festivities, and/or
- Increase community awareness/knowledge of social justice issues
- Create further opportunities for students to make meaningful connections across diverse groups

Duties and Responsibilities

- Attend and actively participate at all mandatory weekly meetings (beginning early May) to further committee programming and GSC goals; weekly meetings are one hour in length at a time convenient to committee members.
- Plan and coordinate at least one large intercultural student-run event/program/project each term in accordance with committee guidelines and budget
- Connect with SFU student clubs to collaborate in events
- Assist with promoting events and programs through social media, posters, and other creative promotional strategies
- Assist with the planning and promotion of GSC programming
- Communicate concerns to the Intercultural Engagement Assistant

Relating to your personal development, Peer Educators will:

- Participate in a self-led learning plan to improve personal development goals
- Meet three times per semester with your Peer Coach (Co-chairs of GESC) as a means of working toward your chosen personal development goal
- Complete 2 online reflections per term relating to your goal setting
